NOTES TO THE INTERIM CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE THREE-MONTH PERIOD ENDED 31 MARCH 2026*2 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES*2.1 Basis of preparation of consolidated financial statements

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Vietnamese Accounting Standards, the Vietnamese Accounting System and regulations on the preparation and presentation of consolidated financial statements applicable to credit institutions operating in Vietnam. The consolidated financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

The accompanying consolidated financial statements are not intended to present the financial position and the financial performance and the cash flows in accordance with accounting principles and practices generally accepted in countries and jurisdictions other than Vietnam. The accounting principles and practices utilised in Vietnam may differ from those generally accepted in countries and jurisdictions other than Vietnam.

The consolidated financial statements in the Vietnamese language are the official statutory consolidated financial statements of the Bank and its subsidiary. The consolidated financial statements in the English language have been translated from the Vietnamese version.

2.2 Financial year

The Bank and its subsidiary's financial year is from 1 January to 31 December.

2.3 Currency

The Bank and its subsidiary's accounting currency is Vietnamese Dong ("VND" or "Dong"). The consolidated financial statements are measured and presented in million Vietnamese Dong ("VND million" or "million Dong"), rounded to the nearest million. The Bank and its subsidiary determine its accounting currency in accordance with Vietnamese Accounting Standards, the Vietnamese Accounting System and regulations on preparation and presentation of consolidated financial statements applicable to credit institutions operating in Vietnam.

All transactions are recorded in original currencies. Transactions arising in currencies other than VND ("foreign currencies") are translated at exchange rates ruling at the transaction dates. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies at month-end are translated at exchange rates ruling at the month-end date. Foreign exchange differences arising from these translations are recognised in the foreign exchange differences item in the consolidated financial statements at month-end and transferred to the consolidated income statement at year-end.

2.4 Basis of consolidation

Subsidiary is an entity over which the Bank has the power to govern the financial and operating policies in order to gain future benefits from their activities generally accompanying a shareholding of more than one half of the voting rights. The existence and effect of potential voting rights that are currently exercisable or convertible are considered when assessing whether the Bank controls another entity. The subsidiary is fully consolidated from the date on which control is transferred to the Bank. It is de-consolidated from the date that control ceases.

The purchase method of accounting is used by the Bank to account for the acquisition of subsidiaries. The cost of the acquisition is recognised at the fair value of the assets given, the equity instruments issued and the liabilities incurred or assumed at the date of the exchange, plus any costs directly attributable to the acquisition. Identifiable assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities assumed in a business combination are measured initially at their fair values at the date of acquisition, regardless of any non-controlling interests. The excess of the cost of the acquisition over the acquirer's interest in the net assets is recognised as goodwill. If the acquirer's interest in the fair value of the net assets exceeds the cost of the acquisition, the difference is recognised immediately in the consolidated income statement.

FOR THE THREE-MONTH PERIOD ENDED 31 MARCH 2026*2 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES*2.4 Basis of consolidation (continued)

Inter-company transactions, balances and unrealised gains and losses on transactions between the Bank and its subsidiary are eliminated.

Accounting policies of the subsidiary have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Bank.

The financial statements of the subsidiary used for consolidation must be prepared for the same financial year.

In a divestment of the Bank's interest in a subsidiary that results in a loss of control, the difference between the Bank's share in the net assets of the subsidiary and the net proceeds from divestment is recognised in the consolidated income statement. The retained interest in the entity will be accounted for as either an investment in another entity or an investment to be accounted for as equity since the divestment date.

2.5 Goodwill

Goodwill represents the excess of the cost of an acquisition over the fair value of the Bank's share of the net identifiable assets of the acquired subsidiary at the date of acquisition. Goodwill on acquisitions of subsidiaries is recognised as an asset and is amortised on a straight-line basis over its estimated year of benefit but not exceeding a period of 10 years.

On disposal of the investments in subsidiary, the attributable amount of unamortised goodwill is included in the determination of the profit or loss on the disposal.

Goodwill is carried at cost less accumulated amortisation and is periodically tested for impairment. If there is evidence that the impairment during the year is higher than the goodwill charge, the Bank records the impairment immediately in the year.

2.6 Cash and cash equivalents

For the purpose of the consolidated cash flow statement, cash and cash equivalents comprise cash on hand, gold, balances with the SBV, treasury bills and other short-term valuable papers eligible for discount with the SBV, securities which have maturity dates within 3 months from purchase dates, demand and term deposits at other credit institutions which have maturity dates within three months or less.

NOTES TO THE INTERIM CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE THREE-MONTH PERIOD ENDED 31 MARCH 2026*2 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)*2.7 Placements with and loans to other credit institutionsPlacements with other credit institutions

Placements with other credit institutions include demand deposits, placements with local credit institutions, foreign bank branches with original maturity less than three months, and placements with overseas credit institutions, which are stated at the amount of principal outstanding.

Placements (excluding demand deposits) with local credit institutions, foreign bank branches and placements with overseas credit institutions are recorded at the amount of principal outstanding less provision for credit losses.

Credit risk classification for term deposits with other credit institutions is made in accordance with Circular 31/2024/TT-NHNN dated 30 June 2024 issued by the SBV regulating on the classification of assets in operations of commercial banks, non-bank credit institutions and foreign bank branches ("Circular 31").

Credit risk provision is made in accordance with Decree No. 86/2024/ND-CP dated 11 July 2024 issued by the Government regulating on the levels of provisioning, methods of provisioning for risks, and the use of provisions to handle risks in the operations of credit institutions, foreign bank branches and the credit institutions' reversal of accrued interest income to off-balance sheet items ("Decree 86"). The classification and provision are similar to the policy applied to loans to customers as presented in Note 2.8.

2.10 Investments in securities

Investments in securities are classified into three categories in accordance with Letter 2601/NHNN-TCKT dated 14 April 2009 issued by the SBV: i) trading securities, ii) held to maturity investment securities or iii) available for sale investment securities. The Bank and its subsidiary are required to classify investment securities into held-to-maturity investment securities, available for sale investment securities or trading securities at the purchase date, reclassification after purchase is permitted only once for each investment securities item.

2.10.1 Trading securitiesClassification and recognition*

Trading securities are defined as debt securities which are held for trading and are acquired principally for the purpose of selling in the short-term or if so designated by the Board of Management.

Trading securities are recognised at the time the Bank and its subsidiary become a party to the purchase contracts of these trading securities, specifically as follows:

- Listed securities are recorded at the time of orders matching;
- Unlisted securities are recognised at the time when official ownership is established in accordance with regulations.

FOR THE THREE-MONTH PERIOD ENDED 31 MARCH 2026*2 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)*2.10 Investments in securities (continued)2.10.1 Trading securities (continued)Measurement

Trading securities which are certificates of deposits or unlisted bonds are recognised at costs less provisions for credit losses. The classification of debts and provisioning for these securities are similar to those for "Loans to customers" as presented in Note 2.8. According to Decree 86 (from 11 July 2024), the Bank and its subsidiary do not make general provisions for certificates of deposit and bonds issued by domestic credit institutions.

Other trading securities are initially recognised at costs less provisions for diminution in value. Provisions for diminution in value are made when the market value of these trading securities is lower than their book value. Accordingly, for debt securities which are listed or registered for trading on the Upcom trading system: the market price of debt securities is the latest trading price at the Stock Exchange within 10 days to the financial year-end.

The Bank and its subsidiary do not make provisions for Government bonds, municipal bonds and Government guaranteed bonds.

Changes in provision balance are recognised in the consolidated income statement during the year. Provisions for trading securities as mentioned above are reverted when the recoverable amount of trading securities increases after the provisions are made as results of objective events. A reversal of provisions, if any, is made only to the extent original costs of trading securities.

Gains or losses from sales of trading securities are recognised in the consolidated income statement as "Net gain/loss from trading of trading securities". Cost is determined by the specific identification method.

Coupon interests received from trading securities during holding periods are recognised in the consolidated income statement upon receipts.

Derecognition

Trading securities are derecognised when the rights to receive cash flows from these securities are terminated or the Bank and its subsidiary transfer substantially all the risks and rewards from ownerships of these securities.

2.10.2 Available-for-sales investment securitiesClassification and recognition*

Available-for-sale investment securities include debt and equity securities, which are intended to be held for investing purposes and may be sold at any time if deemed advantageous.

Available-for-sale investment securities are recognised when the Bank and its subsidiary become a party to the purchase contracts of these securities (accounting at purchase date).

Available-for-sale investment securities which are certificates of deposit or unlisted bonds are recorded at costs less provisions for credit losses.

Other available-for-sale investment securities are stated at their carrying value less provisions for diminution in value. Provisions for diminution in value of available-for-sale investment securities are made when the carrying value is higher than the market price.

Provision for credit losses and provision for diminution in value of available-for-sale investment securities are made similar to the principles applied to trading securities as presented in Note 2.10.1.

Available-for-sale debt securities are recognised at costs of purchases including transaction costs and direct related expenses incurred at purchased date. Accrued interest receivables before purchased date (for debt securities with interest payments in arrears) or deferred interest awaiting for allocation (for debt securities with interest payments in advance) is recognised in a separate account. Discount/premium, which is the negative/positive difference between the cost and the amount of par value plus (+) accrued interest receivables before the purchased date (if any) or minus (-) deferred interest awaiting for allocation (if any) is also recognised in a separate account.

In subsequent holding periods, these debt securities are recognised at par value, and the discount/premium (if any) are amortised to the consolidated income statement on a straight-line basis from purchased date to maturity date of these securities.

Cumulative interest before purchased date is recognised as a decrease in the accrued interest receivables account upon receipts. Accrued interest incurred after purchased date is recognised as income of the Bank and its subsidiary based on an accrual basis. Interest received in advance is amortised into interest income from investment securities based on a straight-line basis from purchased date to maturity date of these securities.

Gains or losses from sales of available-for-sale investment securities are recognised in the consolidated income statement as "Net gain/loss from trading of investment securities". Cost is determined by the specific identification method.

Derecognition

Available-for-sale investment securities are derecognised when the rights to receive cash flows from these securities are terminated or the Bank and its subsidiary transfer substantially all the risks and rewards of ownerships of these securities.

2.10.3 Held-to-maturity investment securities

Held-to-maturity investment securities are debt securities, which the Bank and its subsidiary acquire for investment purpose to earn interest and the Bank and its subsidiary have the positive intention and ability to hold until maturity, including special bonds issued by the Vietnam Debt and Asset Trading Corporation ("DATC").

According to the Official Letter No. 2601/NHNN-TCKT issued by the SBV on 14 April 2009, the Bank and its subsidiary are allowed to reclassify held-to-maturity investment securities up to 1 time after purchase.

Debt securities held-to-maturity (including DATC bonds) are recorded and measured similarly to available-for-sale debt securities as presented in Notes 2.10.2.

2.11 Other long-term investments

Other long-term investments are investments of equal or less than 11% of the voting rights in unlisted entities, and the investments are held not for sale for 12 months or more from the consolidated financial statements date. These investments are initially stated at costs of acquisition.

Subsequently, these other long-term investments are recorded at costs less provisions. Regarding investments in shares whose fair value can be determined reliably, the provision for diminution in value is made when the cost is higher than the market value. For other investments, provision for diminution in value is made when the investees make losses. Changes in provision balance are recorded as operating expenses during the year. The reversal of provision does not exceed the original book value.

2.12 Sales and repurchase agreements

Securities sold under agreements to be repurchased at a specific date in the future (repos) are still recognised in the consolidated financial statements. The proceeds received under this agreement are recognised as a borrowing in the consolidated statement of financial position and the difference between the sale price and the purchase price is amortised on a straight-line basis using the contractual interest rate to the consolidated income statement over the life of the agreement.

Securities purchased under agreements to be resold at a specific date in the future (reverse repos) are not recognised in the consolidated financial statements. The proceeds paid under this agreement are recognised as a loan in the consolidated statement of financial position and the difference between the purchase price and resale price is amortised on a straight-line basis using the contractual interest rate to the consolidated income statement over the life of the agreement.

2.13 Fixed assets

Tangible and intangible fixed assets

Fixed assets are stated at historical cost less accumulated depreciation or amortisation. Historical cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the fixed assets bringing them to their suitable conditions for their intended use. Expenditure which is incurred subsequently and has resulted in an increase in the future economic benefits expected obtained from the use of fixed assets, can be capitalised as an additional historical cost. Otherwise, they are charged to the consolidated income statement when incurred in the year.

Depreciation and amortisation

Fixed assets are depreciated and amortised using the straight-line method so as to write off the historical cost of the fixed assets over their estimated useful lives. The estimated useful lives of each asset class were as follows:

Buildings, structures	8 - 50 years
Machinery, equipment	6 - 15 years
Motor vehicles	6 - 10 years
Office equipment	5 - 8 years

Land use rights comprise land use rights granted by the State for which land use fees are collected, land use rights acquired in a legitimate transfer, and prepaid land use rights obtained under land rental contracts which are effective before the effective date of land law 2003 (i.e. 1 July 2004) and which land use right certificates are granted.

Definite land use rights are stated at costs less accumulated amortisation. Costs of land use rights consists of its purchased prices and any directly attributable costs in obtaining the land use rights. Land use rights are amortised using the straight-line basis over the terms of the land use right certificates.

Indefinite land use rights are stated at costs and not amortised.

Disposals

Gains or losses on disposals are determined by comparing net disposal proceeds with the carrying amount of the fixed assets and are recognised as income or expense in the consolidated income statement.

Construction in progress

Construction in progress represents the cost of assets in the course of installation or construction for business, rental or administrative purposes, or for purposes not yet determined, which are recorded at cost and are comprised of such necessary costs to construct, repair and maintain, upgrade, renew or equip the projects with technologies as construction costs; costs of tools and equipment; project management expenditure and construction consulting costs.

2.14 Operating leases

Leases where a significant portion of the risks and rewards of ownership are retained by the lessor are classified as operating leases. Payments made under operating leases are charged to the consolidated income statement on a straight-line basis over the period of the lease.

2.15 Investment properties held for rent

The initial cost of an investment property held for rent comprises its purchase price (cash or cash equivalent) that the Bank and its subsidiary spend, or the fair value of other consideration given to acquire the investment property up to the time of purchase or completion of construction of that investment property. Expenditures incurred after initial recognition are recorded as an increase in the cost of investment property if it is certain that the expenditure has resulted in future economic benefits from the use of that asset. Expenditures incurred that do not satisfy the above conditions are recorded as production and business expenditure in the financial year.

Depreciation

Investment properties held for rent are depreciated using the straight-line method to gradually reduce the cost over the estimated useful lives. The estimated useful life of each type of asset is as follows:

Investment properties which are indefinite land use rights are stated at costs and not amortised.

NOTES TO THE INTERIM CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE THREE-MONTH PERIOD ENDED 31 MARCH 2026*2 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)*2.16 Prepaid expenses

Prepaid expenses represent prepayments for services; or tools, which do not meet the recognition criteria for fixed assets for a certain period or more than one business cycle from the prepayment date. Prepaid expenses are recorded at historical cost and allocated on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives.

2.17 Other assets

Other assets, other than those from credit activities in the Bank and its subsidiary's operation are initially recognised at cost. Subsequently, other receivables are record at cost less provisions for doubtful debts.

2.18 Other provisions

Provisions are recognised when the Bank and its subsidiary have a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of past events, it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation and the amount has been reliably estimated. Provision is not recognised for future operating losses.

Provisions are measured at the level of the expenditures expected to be required to settle the obligation. If the time value of money is material, provisions will be measured at the present value using a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the obligation. The increase in the provisions due to passage of time is recognised as a financial expense. Changes in the provision balances are recognised in operating expenses during the year.

2.19 Deposits from other credit institutions, deposits from customers and valuable papers in issue

Deposits from other credit institutions, deposits from customers and valuable papers in issue are recorded at their principal balances at the financial year-end. At the time of initial recognition, the issuance costs of valuable papers in issue are recorded as a reduction in the principal balance of valuable papers in issue. Subsequently, the Bank allocates these costs to the item "Interest and similar expenses" on a straight-line basis over the term of valuable papers in issue.

2.20 Derivatives

Derivatives are recognised in the consolidated statement of financial position at contract value on the contract date and subsequently are revalued at the exchange rate prevailing at the month end. Realised gains or losses are recognised in the consolidated income statement. Unrealised gains or losses are recognised in the foreign exchange differences item in the consolidated statement of financial position and are transferred to the consolidated income statement at the year-end.

2.21 Owners' capital

Owners' capital is recorded according to the actual amounts contributed by shareholders at par value of shares.

Share premium is the difference between the par value and the actual issued price of shares and the difference between repurchased price and re-issued price of treasury shares.

Undistributed earnings record the Bank and its subsidiary's results (profit) after CIT and the status of distribution of those results at the reporting date.

2.22 Statutory reserves

According to the Law on credit institutions No. 135/2025/NĐ-CP dated 12 June 2025 issued by the Government regarding the financial regime for credit institutions and foreign bank branches ("Decree 135"), which takes effect from 1 August 2025, the Bank and its subsidiary are required to make these following allocations before profit distribution:

	Percentage of annual allocation	Maximum balance
Reserve to supplement charter capital	10% of profit after tax	Charter capital
Financial reserve	10% of profit after tax after appropriating to the Reserve to supplement charter capital	Not specified the maximum balance

The purpose of financial reserve is to offset residual asset losses and damage occurring in the course of business after such losses have been offset with compensation paid by the organisations, individuals who caused them, indemnity paid by insurers and with the allowance set up and accounted for in expenses and shall be used for other purposes in accordance with the laws.

These statutory reserves are not allowed to be distributed and are recognised as part of equity.

The remaining profit after the appropriation of the above reserves, bonus and welfare fund and distribution of dividends to the shareholders is recognised as undistributed earnings of the Bank and its subsidiary.

2.23 Appropriation of profit

Undistributed earnings could be distributed to shareholders after approval at the General Meeting of Shareholders, and after appropriation to other funds in accordance with the Bank and its subsidiary's charter and Vietnamese laws and regulations.

Bonus and welfare fund is appropriated from net profit after CIT of the Bank and its subsidiary and is approved by shareholders in the General Meeting of Shareholders. The fund is recognised as a liability in the Bank and its subsidiary's consolidated financial statements.

2.24 Interest income and expenses

Interest income and expense are recognised on an accrual basis, except for interest income on held-for-trading debt securities which is recognised upon receipt. Interest income is derecognised and recognised into off-balance sheet items when a loan is not classified as Current loan as described in Note 2.8.1 or is subject to Circular 53/2024, as described in Note 2.8.1.3. Interest income from these loans is recognised in the consolidated income statement upon receipt.

2.25 Fee and commission income

2.26 Fee and commission expenses

NOTES TO THE INTERIM CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE THREE-MONTH PERIOD ENDED 31 MARCH 2026*2 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)*2.27 Dividend income and shares of profits

Dividend income and shares of profits are recognised in the consolidated income statement when the Bank and its subsidiary have established the rights to receive dividends/shares of profits from investees and when both of these following conditions are satisfied:

- It is probable that economic benefits associated with the transaction will flow to the Bank and its subsidiary; and
- Income can be measured reliably.

2.28 Current and deferred income tax

Income tax includes all income tax which is based on taxable profits. Income tax expense comprises current income tax expense and deferred income tax expense.

Current income tax is the amount of income tax payable or recoverable in respect of the current year taxable profits at the current year tax rates. Current and deferred income tax recognised as an income or an expense and included in the profit or loss of the year, except to the extent that the income tax arises from a transaction or event which is recognised, in the same or a different year, directly in equity.

Deferred income tax is provided in full, using the liability method, on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the consolidated financial statements. Deferred income tax is not accounted for if it arises from initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction other than a business combination that at the time of occurrence affects neither the accounting nor the taxable profit or loss. Deferred income tax is determined at the tax rates that are expected to apply to the financial year when the asset is realised or the liability is settled, based on tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the consolidated statement of financial position date.

Deferred income tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilised.

2.29 Related parties

Enterprises and individuals that directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, control, or are controlled by, or are under common control with, the Bank and its subsidiary, including holding companies, subsidiaries and fellow subsidiaries are related parties of the Bank and its subsidiary. Associates and individuals owning, directly or indirectly, an interest in the voting power of the Bank and its subsidiary that gives them significant influence over the enterprise, key management personnel, including the Board of Directors, the Board of Supervision and the Board of Management of the Bank and its subsidiary and close members of the family of these individuals and companies associated with these individuals also constitute related parties.

In considering each possible related party relationship, the Bank and its subsidiary consider the substance of the relationship, and not merely the legal form.

2.30 Critical accounting estimates

The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with Vietnamese Accounting Standards, the Vietnamese Accounting System and regulations on the preparation and presentation of consolidated financial statements applicable to credit institutions operating in Vietnam requires the Board of Management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of income and expenses during the year.

The area involving significant estimates and assumptions is loan classifications and provisions for losses on loans to customers (Note 2.8) and provisions for investment securities (Note 2.10). Such estimates and assumptions are continually evaluated based on historical experiences and other factors, including expectations of future events that may have a financial impact on the Bank and that are assessed by the Board of Management to be reasonable under the circumstances.

NOTES TO THE INTERIM CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE THREE-MONTH PERIOD ENDED 31 MARCH 2026*39 FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT (CONTINUED)*39.2 Market risk (continued)*39.2.3 Price risk

Except for the assets and liabilities items explained above, the Bank and its subsidiary do not have other market price risks with a risk level of 5% of net profit or the value of assets and liabilities items accounting for 5% of total assets.

39.3 Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Bank and its subsidiary are either unable to meet their debt obligations when they fall due, or can only meet those obligations at a cost higher than the market average as defined by the Bank's internal regulations.

Liquidity risk management

The purpose of liquidity risk management is to ensure the availability of funds to meet financial obligations.

To mitigate liquidity risk, the Bank and its subsidiary mobilise funds from a variety of sources other than the Bank and its subsidiary's core capital. At the same time, the Bank and its subsidiary have a flexible liquid asset management policy, monitoring future cash flows and liquidity on a daily basis. The Bank and its subsidiary also assess expected cash flows and the availability of current collateral in case additional funds need to be raised.

Liquidity risk is limited by holding a significant amount of cash and cash equivalents in the form of payment accounts, deposits at the SBV, bonds issued by the Government or guaranteed by the Government, deposits and overnight loans to other credit institutions. Risk-weighted safety ratios are also used to manage the Bank and its subsidiary's liquidity risk.

The tables below analyse financial assets and financial liabilities into relevant maturity groups based on the remaining period from the year-end date to the contractual maturity date. The amounts presented in the table below are undiscounted contractual cash flows.
